

Interested in being a part of user experience research remotely?
We are seeking participants who currently use/do not use a fitness facility to exercise!

Here is an overview of what our study will entail!

- The purpose of this study is to take a user's experience using a fitness facility to learn about their needs, perspectives, and barriers they had when using the facilities equipment and services.
- Participant criteria?
 - People with a physical disability or visual impairment who has used or not used gym membership
 - People without a physical disability who must have experience using gym membership
 - Exercises at least 60 minutes/week
 - Speak and understand English
- What would you have to do?
 - An online prescreening survey.
 - Over-the-phone cognitive questionnaire.
 - At the end of the cognitive questionnaire, if the participant is willing they will be scheduled for a one-on-one interview zoom or phone call to discuss their experiences with an investigator.
- Will there be compensation?
 - Yes! After the one-on-one interview is completed, each participant will receive a $40.00 gift card.
